

LOCAL CHURCH HISTORIAN'S SCHOOL

Looking Back. Moving Forward.

LOCAL CHURCH HISTORIAN SCHOOL NOW BEING OFFERED CHURCHWIDE

The General Commission on Archives and History of The United Methodist Church is offering a Local Church Historian School for church historians—or anyone interested in the story of their church.

The LCHS curriculum will cover a wide range of skills necessary to become a “complete” church historian. Participating congregations will benefit from a new consciousness of their heritage and legacy and will be motivated to study and proclaim their unique stories to those around them.

This is the same school developed and offered by the Indiana Conference in the past, now updated, and being offered by the General Commission on Archives and History to any United Methodist church globally.

The school will begin on September 14, 2020. Plan now to use this opportunity to ensure that the heritage of each of our churches will be celebrated and that each church can receive the full benefit of its own amazing story.
